

The 4A Approach to Conscious Decision-Making

Conscious Decision-Making in Occupational Therapy Practice is a useful approach to making decisions that reflect accountable, principled practice. The 4A approach outlines the critical steps of the Conscious Decision-Making (CDM) framework. This approach is a quick reference, designed to support OTs when making professional decisions.

